

Sinclair is going too far with its decision to air anti-Kerry propaganda on the eve of a national election. From an FCC that took swift action against the mere exposure of a breast, I hear only a mighty silence on this media giant's subversion of the democratic process.

Do your job. Block this abuse of the airwaves now, and tighten the rules on media monopolization in the months and years to come.